The Maine Historical Society Quarterly is published at 485 Congress Street, Portland, Maine 04101, and is received by 1935 members and 104 libraries. Subscriptions are available through membership only, dues for which begin at $15.00 per annum.

Manuscripts relating to any aspect of Maine history are invited. Submissions should reflect original, previously unpublished research done according to acceptable scholarly standards and should not exceed six thousand words. Style and footnotes should be in conformity with A Manual of Style, published by the University of Chicago Press.

The authors of all manuscripts published in the Quarterly become eligible to receive the James Phinney Baxter Award of $100.00. The Baxter Award, established to promote excellence in the research and writing of Maine history, is presented annually to the author of the best article, as determined by the Editorial Committee, appearing in the Quarterly during the volume-year.

The Maine Historical Society assumes no responsibility for the opinions and interpretations expressed by its contributors.

The articles appearing in the Quarterly are abstracted in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life, published by the American Bibliographic Center.
