"A scholarly landmark"

—New England Historical and Genealogical Register

Bibliographies of New England History

Winner of an Award of Merit from the American Association for State and Local History. Prepared under the supervision of the Committee for a New England Bibliography, Inc., headed by John Borden Armstrong. The first four volumes are available from University Press of New England, now publisher of this distinguished series.

RHODE ISLAND

A Bibliography of Its History

EDITED BY ROGER PARKS

The first comprehensive bibliography of the state's history published in this century, this long-awaited guide marks a major milestone in the historiography of the nation's smallest state and satisfies the need for full bibliographic control of its rich historical literature. A compilation of published writings, the volume provides 4100 up-to-date annotated listings of both standard and obscure works, scholarly and popular, arranged alphabetically within geographic divisions (state, county, city, or town). Includes a foreword which assesses existing literature and a comprehensive index.
