COVER ILLUSTRATION: "Norlands," home to Israel Washburn and Patty Benjamin Washburn, served as a debarkation point for seven Washburn sons who spread the influence of their Maine upbringing to Augusta, the Middle West, and the halls of Congress. The record of their Diaspora, according to author Theodore A. Webb, enriches the symbolism of the mythical "American character." The cut on the front cover is from a memorial exercise celebrating the Washburn Memorial Library. The brochure is located in the University of Maine's Fogler Library.
